My job search skills were definitely improved through my participation with Career Transition Institute. The weekly speakers were always helpful and informative, the training classes were personalized and therefore very effective, and job circle was a great forum to exchange ideas, increase accountability, and receive valuable coaching.

I strongly recommend Career Transition Institute for anyone who is in search mode.

ARE YOU IN CAREER TRANSITION?

Providing you enhanced job search skills, accountability and encouragement.

CTI has been extremely invaluable during my job search and unemployment. CTI's program and structure offers personalized one on one coaching that was tailored to my specific needs in my employment search. CTI also provides weekly informative workshops where expert speakers in the employability field would share their knowledge and recent trends in the workforce.

Most of all CTI provided accountability and emotional support through the challenges of unemployment. I encourage anyone who is looking to make a job change or who is unemployed to come to a workshop and learn more about CTI to see if it is right for you.
